Start today

Begin a new relationship with GE and with your customers.

empower is your new gateway to instant answers, time savers, ideas and experts. It's designed to help you deliver better service, improve productivity and get answers from any location with any digital device.

Simpler, smarter, faster

Get powerful new capabilities – like managing multiple releases per order, custom branding for your proposals and key submittal data access – without waiting or going through multiple steps.

You're in charge empower is your single tool for everything from GE's Industrial Solutions business. So, from research and inquiries to ordering, tracking and final reporting, you have complete visibility and real-time answers.

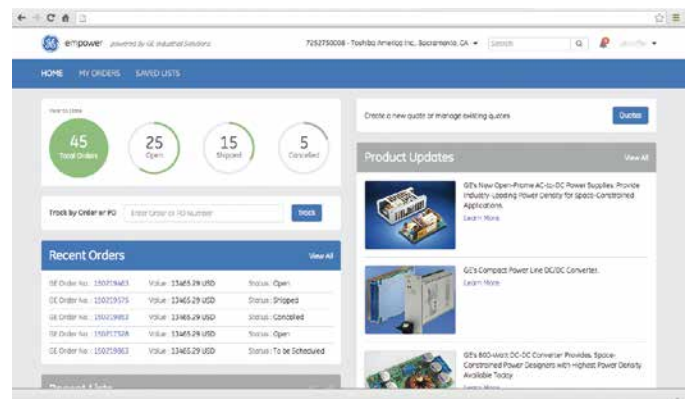

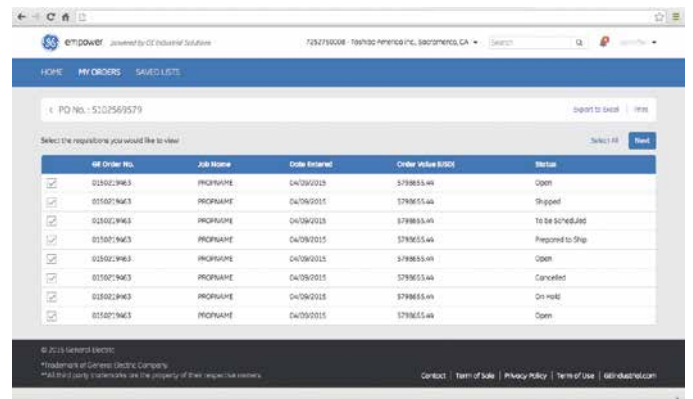

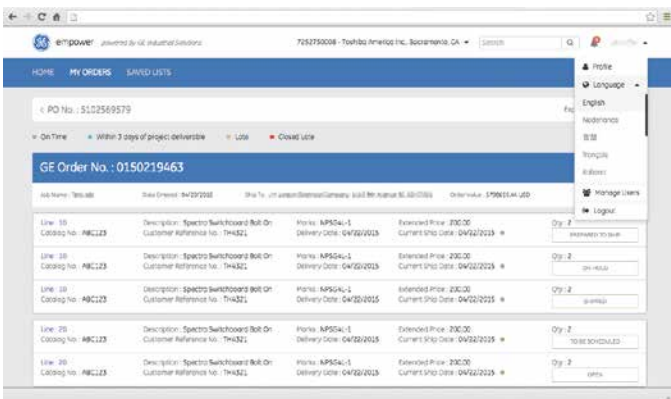

You're in the know

Proactive notifications, comprehensive reporting and a direct line to GE experts give you an information advantage. You're empowered to win more business, boost productivity and do more with less.

empower is all about you

Your business and processes are unique and so is your empower experience. Customizable dashboards, templates, product configurations and more save you time, uncover opportunities and reduce the chance for error. You have the power to precisely tailor functionality to the way you do business.

Check availability, place orders, track shipments, get order details – you can do it all in an instant with empower. Plus, you can save time with tools that remember common order groupings, route approvals, inform colleagues and create clear, concise, meaningful communications to share with your customers.

Get ready for a simpler, smarter, faster way into GE!
empower is a completely new digital gateway that helps you get information, place orders, track shipments, research invoices and more.
All you need to get started is a browser and a question.
